From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
Ed Got Red In His Own "Hot Water"
Big Ed started a "Pay-Your-Bill" campaign last week and ended up with a slightly red face. Ed's been our Water Commissioner for ten years, and for ten years now he's been getting riled up over slow payments of bills.
So, he finally decided to do something drastic about it. Last week he sent notices that if the slackers didn't pay up by Friday, he'd shut off their water.
Naturally, some still didn't square accounts. Ed ordered their water turned off, and 14 homes went without all week end—the Commissioner's among them. Seems Ed forgot to pay his bill.
From where I sit, Ed's mistake is one we all make at times. We are too quick to accuse others while forgetting our own faults. Lots of us do it, for instance, over a difference in taste for a soft drink or a friendly glass of beer. Let's respect each other's preferences and we'll all stay out of "hot water."

The A. H. S. Newscast

By Peggy Ellen Cole

We're all hard at work this week studying for those exams. They begin Monday morning and last until Wednesday. After Wednesday we can start looking forward to final exams, but just after then comes summer and on time. Nice thought for the of winter, isn't it?

re you wondered what was with all the juniors Monday? They got their class rings. This is the most important event in the life of a junior, so don't be annoyed if you have to look at everyone's ring. After all, the seniors did the same thing last year and you sophomores and freshmen will follow suit when you become juniors.

Mrs. Webb's home room had charge of assembly on Wednesday morning. Our Baptist minister, Dr. V. W. Sears, spoke to us. This is the first time that he had been on our assembly program and we hope he will pay us many return visits.

The annual staff finished getting the pictures for the annual last week. We want to thank everyone for the help and cooperation you gave us in finishing this task. We're all hard at work on the annual and hope for the best publication ever. You'll be sorry if you don't subscribe for your copy now.

We are all very sorry to see Mrs. Orman leave us. We would like to welcome in her place Mrs. Reginald Speir. I know that we are going to love having her and we are all anxious to get acquainted.

The first edition of the "Commercial Comment," our school newspaper will be out Friday. You can get subscriptions for the rest of the year from any member of the Commercial Club.

The regular meeting of the Tri-Hi-Y Club was called to order Monday morning. The Scripture was read by Rebecca Babcock. The program was conducted by Virginia Herndon, after which we adjourned with the Tri-Hi-Y benediction.

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y held its meeting Tuesday morning. It was decided that we would have a square dance in the cafeteria. We adjourned to meet again January 29.

Our basketball teams played Bedford at Concord last Thursday night. Both the boys and girls lost, but the scores were close and the playing the best ever.

Our next game is with Naruna at Concord Thursday night. I'll see all of you there.

There were some strange looking creatures walking around school on Tuesday. It took me a little while to find out that they were Home Economics girls being initiated into the F. H. A. Initiations can be lots of fun and everyone shows what a good sport he is when he takes part in them.

Well, I've let you in on about all the happenings at A. H. S. this week—but I'll be with you next week, same time, same place.

Ask Relief Rolls Opened

RICHMOND, Jan. 23—The Virginia Press Association went on record as favoring the opening of the Welfare rolls to public inspection and advocated certain revisions in the State's Juvenile Court law during its two-day winter convention here last week end.

In a resolution commending Gov. Battle and members of the State Welfare Board for their recommendations on opening the welfare rolls to public inspection, the Association directed its legislative committee to appear at hearings on bills now before the General Assembly that would make this information available to the public.

The resolution further expressed the conviction that "any and all records of expenditures of public money should be open to the public at any and all times." Publishers attending the convention generally agreed that opening of the welfare rolls to public inspection would not result in indiscriminate publication of the names of persons receiving public assistance.

A resolution advocating revision of certain provisions of the present Juvenile Court Law called for changes that would permit release of information to the public through the newspapers concerning the names of adults involved in juvenile cases; the names of juveniles charged with felony and the names of all persons violating the traffic laws regardless of age.

The newspapermen pointed out that present provisions in the juvenile Court Law permit courts and police officers to withhold information concerning the names of persons charged with sex offenses and other crimes against juveniles. The law also makes it difficult to obtain accurate information on juveniles charged with a felony, the publishers said.

Publication of the names of all traffic law violators, regardless of age, as a proven deterrent of highway accidents, was also called for by the resolution.

Episcopalians Elect Officers

At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Ann's Episcopal Church Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the year 1952:

Senior Warden, Hubert A. Gurney; Junior Warden, Walter W. Scott; Clerk, William S. Jones; Treasurer, Mrs. William J. Covington, Jr.

The meeting was presided over by the Rev. Herbert Tucker, minister-in-charge. The other members of the Vestry are: J. C. Hudgins, Jesse H. Hurt, Richard Janatka, C. D. Staples, Joel Flood, Morton Jennings, J. Otis Hannah, H. E. LaBelle and Frank Dresser. In addition to the election of officers, various matters affecting the work of the church were discussed.

This Sunday, the fourth Sunday after Epiphany, will be observed throughout the Episcopal Church as Theological Education Sunday. All members are asked to contribute to the task of preparing men for the ministry in the seminaries. The offering of St. Ann's Church will be sent to the Virginia Seminar in Alexandria, Virginia, which is supported jointly by the three Dioceses in Virginia. The subject of the sermon is the life of the Church, with emphasis on the Virginia Seminary.

HOSTESS TO WSCS OF TRINITY CHURCH

The W. S. C. S. of Trinity Methodist Church met Thursday at 2:00 P. M. in the home of Mrs. T. M. Martin. There were nineteen members and two visitors present. The devotional was a continuous study of the Book of Acts, led by Mrs. H. O. Martin.

Program Subject: "What bring We to The Saviour?" was led by Mrs. W. A. Weekly. Others having parts on the program were Mrs. S. G. Martin, Mrs. T. M. Martin and Mrs. Russell Martin.

The Rev. F. J. Wingfield dismissed the meeting with prayer. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. B. Martin and Mrs. Joe Martin.

The February meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Judson Morris.

Oakville

Oakville, Jan. 23.- We seem to be having some winter weather, but there is one thing to remember: "If winter comes, can spring be far behind." It's the same way in our lives. There are wintery days, but the Lord knows our needs and will surely send the springtime of gladness.

Mr. and Mrs. F.W. Drinkard spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Drinkard. In the afternoon they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Drinkard.

Miss Alice W. Martin, of Farmville spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Martin.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Drinkard were Mr. and Mrs. Howlett Drinkard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Drinkard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bethel and Linda Sue and Mr. and Mrs. John Moore and Jimmie.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Beasley, of Boones Mill spent the week-end with Mrs. E. B. Martin.

On Sunday they motored to Lynchburg to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith. Other dinner guests in this home were C. T. Moses, Jr. and daughters, Joan and Janet. While there they visited Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr. and daughter at the Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Ralph Smith and brother, Wyatt, who were hurt when the truck they were driving turned over, are better at this writing. We wish them a speedy recovery.

TEMPORARY CHANGE OF LOCATION

You have doubtless observed the new addition to the old banking quarters, which is only part of the entire program of improvement and modernization.

Within the course of the next several weeks the present banking quarters will undergo drastic changes, resulting in lowering the floor to the street level and a complete rearrangement of the interior with the installation of new modern low type fixtures.

Increased volume of business for which we are deeply grateful prompted us to undertake the program, and while it is in progress it will necessarily inconvenience our customers. We sincerely hope upon its completion that we may serve you with increased efficiency and that all of us will enjoy the modernized quarters to the fullest extent.

Please bear with us while the work is in progress and if someday within the near future the present building does not look like business as usual——

Will You Please Go Up The Stairway In The New Addition . . . And You Will Find Us Ready, Willing And Anxious To Serve You In OUR TEMPORARY QUARTERS

When we move down, sometime within the next several months, we are looking forward to serving you in a completely modernized bank building.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this progressive program, we are yours for service and progress.
